

Learning with a smile!

Flachsland Zukunftsschulen opened its doors in 2008. Our students experience learning from pre-school to secondary education under one roof.

We offer a holistic approach to learning. Guided by our profile and learning principles students learn bilingual, in mixed-aged learning groups and explore concepts through inquiry-based learning.

We have a vacancy for a

Native English Speaking Teacher (m/f/d)

Part- or Full-time position

We are looking for a dedicated and inspired educator, who is committed to the intellectual, social and ethical development of students.

All applicants should have a passion for teaching 6-16 year-old students.

Your profile should contain (non-exhaustive list):

- A degree and a recognized teaching qualification
- Previous teaching experience
- Demonstrated ability to provide consistent and considerate supervision and guidance of students
- Honesty, integrity, compassion
- Can establish trust within our community
- Ability to work as a positive and supportive team member
- Ability to engage with students and to engender enthusiasm for learning
- Ability to communicate confidently and fluently, with clarity and precision, to inspire confidence in written and oral forms
- Knowledge of German is required
- Should be willing and eager to implement Flachsland Zukunftsschulen elements of learning.

Interested applicants should send their application to bewerbung@flachsland-hamburg.de.

For enquires contact us under telephone 040 – 20 00 03 81.

*Bildung mit Kopf,
Herz & Hand*